LIEUTENANT

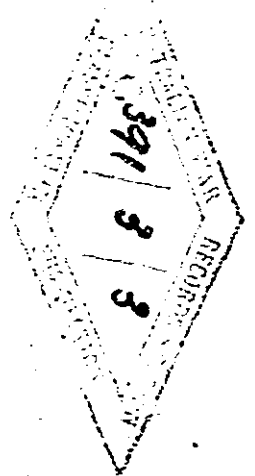

DOUGHTY,
Ralph Dorchel

At HERMIERS on the 9th April 1917, Lieut Ralph Dorchel DOUGHTY displayed conspicuous courage and initiative when working with the Right Battalion, 1st Australian Infantry Brigade as F.O.O. for the 3rd (Army) F.A. Brigade. He was responsible for the successful employment of the Artillery on this flank at a critical period of the operations, and did not hesitate to push out beyond the furthest point reached by our Infantry patrols in order to secure better facilities for observation. There can be little doubt that it was to his devotion to duty and resource, that our line in front of HERMIERS owed its immunity from counter-attack, during the whole day of attack.
